Research grants, awards

IDEX, France: Chaire d'Attractivité. 2015 – 2019. Collaboration with J Py, Toulouse University. Euros 380 000

NRF Germany-RSA collaborative research grant, with SL Sporer, University of Giessen. R300 000 over the period 2008 – 2011.

NRF Incentive Funding, 2009 – 2010, for achieving B2 rating. R160 000 over this period.

Research grant from the National Research Foundation; project title “A non-verbal face composite system for improving eyewitness memory for faces“, for the years 2004-7, total value ± R 400 000 (including student bursaries)

Joint research grants with John Dixon (UK) from ESRC and British Academy, to value of R 800 000.

Joint research grant from SANPAD (Gillian Finchilescu is principal researcher) to value of R 300 000, 2003 - 2005. Title: An investigation into the perceptual and meta-perceptual factors that obstruct the desegregation of student life at a South African university.

Research grant from the National Research Foundation; project title “A non-verbal face composite system for improving eyewitness memory for faces“, for the year 2002, total value R96 000 (including two student bursaries)

Research grant from the National Research Foundation; project title “Contact and segregation in dynamic social spaces“, for the year 2002, total value R54 000 (including two student bursaries).

Fullbright Scholar, October 2001 – December 2001. Stationed at University of Texas at El Paso, and at Florida International University.

Research grant 15/1/3/16/0158 from the Council for Scientific Development, South Africa. This grant ran for three years (1998 - 2000), and had a total value of R 91 800.

A number of smaller, miscellaneous grants have also been made by the University of Cape Town's Research committee (1991, 1993, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007).

NRF rated researcher, B2 category.

Conference organisation

- 1997 PsySSA Western Cape regional conference, University of the Western Cape, April. I served on the committee that planned and co-ordinated this congress.
- 1998 PsySSA national congress, University of Cape Town, September. I served on the scientific committee of this congress, and co-ordinated the review of papers, and the planning of the academic presentations.
- 2006 I co-organized a small group, prestige international conference on Contact and Intergroup relations, Contact50. More than 30 top international scholars from seven countries attended.
- 2002 – 7 I co-organized five small group International Eyewitness conferences (known informally as the 'Fat Tire' conferences). Held in El Paso in 2001, 2004 and 2007; Waterloo 2002; Key West 2003
- 2008 Organized African Social Psychology small group conference, at Montfleur, Stellenbosch, with K Dumont
- 2009-12 Chair of Forensic Psychology Stream, International Congress for Psychology, 2012, in Cape Town

Specific teaching initiatives and projects

- 1990 Development of a third year course in Statistics for Psychology students. Specific materials developed for this course included: i) a set of 18 tutorials, and 18 'model answer' sheets; ii) a computer-based tutoring system; iii) a small statistical analysis program, which simulates MINITAB, the program which was referred to in the course textbook. Materials in ii) and iii) were developed jointly with Frank Bokhorst.
- 1992 Development of a course in Methodology (with John Dixon) for Psychology 3 students. This course aimed at 'bridging the divide' between statistics and methodology. Specific course materials developed here included i) A set of 16 tutorials, with 'model answer' sheets; ii) A set of practical exercises, some implemented on computer.
- 1993 Development of a supplementary mathematics course for Psychology students. The course was open to 2nd and 3rd year students. I co-ordinated and taught on this course.
- 1995 Development of an academic development course for underprepared Psychology 1 students. Specific initiatives included i) Chairing weekly meetings of tutors, where course materials were developed; ii) Initiating and chairing an 'evaluation group': the aims of this group included a) developing evaluation skills in ADP tutors, and b) implementing an evaluation of the 1995 and 1996 AD programmes in the Department of Psychology.

- 1997 Development of an honours course 'Psychology and Law', with Professor Don Foster, Department of Psychology, UCT
- 1999 Construction of curriculum for 2nd and 3rd year undergraduate training in Research Methodology and Statistics. Extension of this in 2005 and 2006 to 1st year level.
- 2003 Development of laboratory based, spreadsheet Statistics tutorial program for Psy 206f. Ten 2 hour tutorials developed in conjunction with Effective Numeracy Centre. This system extensively revised in 2005 and 2006 and 2007.
- 2003-6 Constructed and maintained Psychology Department web site at UCT
- 2005 Development of 16 lecture undergraduate module for Psychology and Law
- 2005 Development of undergraduate curriculum in Psychology for Neuroscience and Cognitive psychology (with D. Nunez, K. Thomas, M. Solms)
- 2005 Development of lectures, practicals and tutorials for Social Psychology of Intergroup Relations course
- 2006 Extension of laboratory based Statistics tutorial program to Psy 1001W, and preparation for extension to Psy3007s
- 2008 Re-developed Psychology Honours statistics course, with S Malcolm-Smith, and taught section on multiple regression and factor analysis
- 2007 Developed half of a module on Applied Cognitive Psychology (third level course), with David Nunez
- 2013 - Ongoing development of Advanced Statistics Programming course in R. MA level, UCT.
